

Panasonic Student Eco Citizenship Project

Congratulations Student Eco Citizens!

During the 2019-2020 school year Denver area schools took action and became active participants creating a sustainable global environment and society.

Ashley Cirbo School
Bear Valley International School
Bradford K8 School
Bruce Randolph Middle School
Bryant Webster Dual
Language School
Carlson Elementary School
Charles Hay World School
Cherrellyn Elementary School
Clayton Elementary School
Cole Arts and Science Academy
Columbian Elementary School
Columbine Elementary School
DCIS Montbello School
Denver Center for International Studies
Denver School of the Arts
Drake Middle School

DSST: Conservatory Green MS
Dunstan Middle School
East Middle School
Euclid Middle School
Fairview Elementary School
Farrell B. Howell School
Goddard Middle School
Goldrick Elementary School
Green Gables Elementary School
Greenwood Academy School
Hamilton Middle School
Highline Academy
Hill Campus of Arts and Sciences
HOPE Online Learning Academy
John H Amesse Elementary School
Kearney Middle School
Kunsmiller Creative Arts Academy
Lake Middle School

Louisville Middle School
McGlone Academy
Newton Middle School
North Middle School
Polaris Elementary School
Roger Quist Middle School
Slater Elementary School
Slavens School
Summit Academy Middle School
Swansea Elementary School
Teller Elementary School
The PEAK Program @ Crossroads
Middle School
Valdez Elementary School
Vanguard Classical School West
Vista Academy
Westminster School
Willow Elementary School

The Foundation for Impact on Literacy and Learning would also like to thank Panasonic for their support of this project. To learn more about the Panasonic Student Eco Citizenship Project visit: ecocitizenship.org